ITC Hotels, India's premier hotel chain, has launched a collection of new leisure packages with savings on gourmet getaways and spa retreats across the group's 10 hotels in eight of India's key cities.

A culinary escape taking in India's finest restaurants

ITC Hotels are renowned for their gourmet offering across India and the world, with their restaurants being named amongst the 'Top 50 in the World' and favourites of Presidents (Clinton and Obama) and celebrities alike. Guests can dine like a VIP during a "Culinary WelcomeBreak" sampling a range of cuisines from the traditional North Indian dishes at Bukhara at ITC Maurya in Delhi to Southern India's rich tastes at Dakshin, to the intense flavours of slow cooking at the fine dining restaurant Dum Pukht.

ITC Maurya in Delhi is offering a two-night break from INR28299/£285 for two adults and up to two children, including breakfast, two meals at any of the hotel restaurants including one drink per person; one Kitchens of India hamper and a Chef's special gift. Offer is also valid at ITC Hotels in Mumbai, Agra, Bangalore, Chennai, Hyderabad, Jaipur and Kolkata until 30 September 2014. Prices subject to taxes.

New Kaya Kalp Spa Retreat packages

Guests seeking a truly relaxing retreat can enjoy savings of up to 30% on dedicated Kaya Kalp Spa packages across the ITC Hotels' collection. True to its name, a Sanskrit word meaning rejuvenation of body, mind and soul, Kaya Kalp embraces the spiritual and medicinal legacies of India with exotic body treatments, relaxing massages and ancient Ayurvedic rituals.
