IT'S A 'TEENS' WORLD...SCOTT DUNN LAUNCHES NEW 'TEENS' PORTFOLIO

Scott Dunn's first luxury 'Teens' portfolio and dedicated brochure, offers expertly curated itineraries for the ever-demanding teenager ranging from African twin centres and alpine ski safaris to cool Costa Rica and road trips in the States.

Recognising the importance of making the most of the last few years before the kids fly the nest, Scott Dunn has launched a new 'Teens portfolio' and brochure just in time for the Easter holidays. Filled with unique itineraries, it is designed to ensure that each member of the family – from young to old – has an unforgettable holiday.

Every expertly curated holiday in the portfolio has been crafted using Scott Dunn's family expertise in order to challenge teens to immerse themselves in new experiences. A dedicated 'Teens' brochure has also been created including a table with a price scale and a section that factors in whether the holiday is suitable for half term, taking in to consideration the length of time the holiday requires.

All of the itineraries are ripe with Instagramming opportunities that will earn your teens ultimate bragging rights. Not leaving out the ones footing the bill, the brochure also divides each holiday into what teens will love and what parents will love.

Highlights include:

COSTA RICA COOL

Zip line through the rain forest and white water raft in the cloud forests of the Central Valley before setting off for a remote lodge in the Osa Peninsula to wonder at the exotic wildlife that roam these unexplored parts. Take to the seas and marvel at majestic humpback whales before taking in the awe-inspiring Arenal Volcano and relaxing by the infinity pool at the stunning Andaz Peninsula Papagayo Resort.
