

PRESS RELEASE

UPGRADE TO THE CARIBBEAN WITH SCOTT DUNN

Luxury tour operator launches a series of exclusive offers with savings of up to £5,256, combining complimentary upgrades at some of the Caribbean's finest hotels with British Airways premium flights

Scott Dunn has today unveiled a new Upgrade to the Caribbean incentive, offering a range of incredible value holidays to some of the islands' finest hotels whilst benefitting from added value touches such as hotel upgrades and Club or World Traveller Plus flights with British Airways.

With savings of up to £5,256 to be snapped up and the majority of packages available for travel up until December 2015, these offers are ideal for those wishing to get away later in the year. From the beautiful scenery of St Lucia, to the vibrancy of Turks and Caicos or the laid back charisma of the Grenadines, each Caribbean island offers its own individual charm.

Sample offers include:

COTTON HOUSE, GRENADINES - SAVE £5,256

Cotton House epitomizes colonial Caribbean charm and boasts a range of activities including horse-riding along the beach, diving and snorkelling in the pristine waters and beach picnics. Scott Dunn offers 7 nights at Cotton House from £3,364 (a saving of £5,256 per couple) based on 2 sharing a Sea View Cottage including British Airways Club World flights to St Lucia and shared charter onto Mustique, private transfers, breakfast, 2 free nights, exclusive Scott Dunn room upgrade on all room categories, 50% discount on internal flights and an island picnic for travel until 10 December 2015.

NONSUCH BAY, ANTIGUA - SAVE £1,890

Set on Antigua's remote southeast coast, Nonsuch Bay is ideal for watersports lovers and families too with a complimentary kid's club for babies and children plus sailing programmes for adults and kids 8 years and over.
