ELEGANT, GLAMOROUS AND NOSTALGIC, THE ARTS CLUB IS TO OPEN ITS OWN HOTEL IN LATE 2014

The Arts Club, the private members' club established in 1863, is to add 16 beautifully designed hotel rooms and suites to its impressive Mayfair townhouse in Spring 2015.

Located on popular Dover Street, the hotel will offer a discreet escape and enable guests to access all of The Arts Club facilities, including the three restaurants, garden and nightclub.

The suites, which are on the second, third and fourth floors of the Georgian building, are elegant and glamorous in design and each evoke the style of Europe in the early 20th Century.

Ranging in size up to around 100m<sup>2</sup>, the suites will include furnishings from iconic designers in Europe, such as Jacques Adnet, Gio Ponti, Finn Juhl, Piero Fornasetti and Hans Wegner with finishing including specially embossed leather headboards, eglomise mirror panels and hand tufted rugs. Ceilings will contain mirror elements with stretched fabric while the bathrooms will feature walnut doors and marble.

Alice Chadwyck-Healey of The Arts Club, commented: "Many of the Arts Club members have asked us to expand our offering so we expect plenty of demand to stay. We believe that the new hotel will attract a very international guest, who wishes to relax in a high-quality, glamorous and discreet suite in central London."

The hotel, which has been created by London design specialists Sagrada, and is due to open in the first quarter of 2015.
